DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendment and response filed on September 11, 2006 has been received and entered into the case. Claims 1 – 4 are pending. All arguments have been fully considered.

Specification

The amendment filed September 11, 2006 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: "from untreated water".

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The claims are drawn to a method for producing functional water from untreated water. However, the specification as originally filed does not provide support for the limitation of “untreated water”. While the specification does speak to a “raw water”, it is noted that applicant has not equated these two phrases to mean the same thing, or to even disclose the phrase of “untreated water” in the specification as originally filed. This is a new matter rejection.

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 – 4 are rendered vague and indefinite for reciting terms and phrases too numerous to name individually. Examples of such language include but are not limited to:

The terms “functional water” and “raw water” are not adequately defined by the claim language or specification.

The claims are generally confusing because the method steps are not clearly set forth such that one could practice the claimed invention. Specifically, the storing steps are extremely confusing in that it is unclear to what portions of the composition “the rest” refers; “a first precipitation tank” is recited however it actually appears to be a second precipitation tank; and it is unclear what portions of the compositions are being cultivated, transferred, circulated, and/or transferred.

Applicant argues that the term functional water is defined in the specification as being a water with vitamins, growth promoting substances, and metabolic products which is effective as an antibacterial. However, while the specification generally refers to such a composition, the claims remain vague and indefinite under the statutes of 35 USC 112, second paragraph. Moreover, the claims do not clearly delineate the invention in such clear and concise terms such that one in the art would not be appraised of the full scope of the claims.

As previously stated, the instant claims have not been examined over the prior art because no meaningful search could be performed on the claims as drafted (with respect to relevant art) for the reasons set forth under U.S.C. 112, second paragraphs above.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
